About Cambridge ESOL

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is developed by University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations (Cambridge ESOL), a not-for-profit department of the University of Cambridge.

Cambridge ESOL is one of three major exam boards which form the Cambridge Assessment Group (Cambridge Assessment). More than 8 million Cambridge Assessment exams are taken in over 160 countries around the world every year.

To find out more about Cambridge English exams and the CEFR, go to www.CambridgeESOL.org/CEFR

In addition to our own programmes of world-leading research, we work closely with professional bodies, industry professionals and governments to ensure that our exams remain fair and relevant to candidates of all backgrounds and to a wide range of stakeholders.

Key features of Cambridge English exams

Cambridge English exams:

- are based on realistic tasks and situations so that preparing for their exam gives learners real-life language skills
- accurately and consistently test all four language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking – as well as knowledge of language structure and its use
- encourage positive learning experiences, and seek to achieve a positive impact on teaching wherever possible
- are as fair as possible to all candidates, whatever their national, ethnic and linguistic background, gender or disability.

Proven quality

Cambridge ESOL’s commitment to providing exams of the highest possible quality is underpinned by an extensive programme of research and evaluation, and by continuous monitoring of the marking and grading of all Cambridge English exams. Of particular importance are the rigorous procedures which are used in the production and pretesting of question papers.

All our systems and processes for designing, developing and delivering exams and assessment services are certified as meeting the internationally recognised ISO9001:2008 standard for quality management and are designed around five essential principles:

- Validity - are our exams an authentic test of real-life English?
- Reliability - do our exams behave consistently and fairly?
- Impact - does our assessment have a positive effect on teaching and learning?
- Practicality - does our assessment meet learners’ needs within available resources?
- Quality - how we plan, deliver and check that we provide excellence in all of these fields.

How these qualities are brought together is outlined in our publication Principles of Good Practice, which can be downloaded free from www.CambridgeESOL.org/Principles

The world’s most valuable range of English qualifications

Cambridge ESOL offers the world’s leading range of qualifications for learners and teachers of English. Over 3.5 million people take our exams each year in 130 countries.

Cambridge ESOL offers assessments across the full spectrum of language ability. We provide examinations for general communication, for professional and academic purposes, and also specialist legal and financial English qualifications. All of our exams are aligned to the principles and approach of the Common European Framework of Reference for Language (CEFR).
Introduction to Cambridge English: Key for Schools

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is a qualification at pre-intermediate level. It demonstrates that a person can use English to communicate in simple situations and has achieved a good foundation in learning English. Cambridge English: Key for Schools was developed in 2008 as a version of Cambridge English: Key (KET) with exam content and topics specifically targeted at the interests and experience of school-age learners.

Cambridge English: Key for Schools

- follows exactly the same format and level as Cambridge English: Key
- leads to exactly the same internationally recognised Cambridge ESOL certificate as Cambridge English: Key
- matches students’ experiences and interests
- enables students to take an internationally recognised exam and enjoy the exam experience.

Candidates can choose to take Cambridge English: Key for Schools as either a paper-based or computer-based exam.

Who is the exam for?

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is aimed at school pupils who want to:

- understand and use basic phrases and expressions
- introduce themselves and answer basic questions about personal details
- interact with English speakers who talk slowly and clearly
- write short, simple notes.

Who recognises the exam?

- Cambridge English: Key is a truly international certificate, recognised around the world for business and study purposes.
- Thousands of employers, universities and government departments officially recognise Cambridge English: Key as a basic qualification in English.

For more information about recognition go to www.CambridgeESOL.org/recognition

What level is the exam?

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is targeted at Level A2 of the CEFR. Achieving a certificate at this level proves that a person can use English to communicate in simple situations.

What can candidates do at Level A2?

The Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) has carried out research to determine what language learners can typically do at each CEFR level. It has described these abilities in a series of Can Do statements using examples taken from real-life situations.

Cambridge ESOL, as one of the founding members of ALTE, uses this framework as a way of ensuring its exams reflect real-life language skills.

Exam content and processing

Cambridge English: Key for Schools is a rigorous and thorough test of English at Level A2. It covers all four language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking. Preparing for Cambridge English: Key for Schools helps candidates develop the skills they need to use English to communicate effectively in a variety of practical contexts.

A thorough test of all areas of language ability

There are three papers: Reading and Writing, Listening and Speaking. The Reading and Writing paper carries 50% of the total marks, the Listening paper and the Speaking paper each carry 25% of the total marks. Detailed information on each test and sample papers follow later in this handbook, but the overall focus of each test is as follows:

Reading and Writing: 1 hour 10 minutes

Candidates need to be able to understand simple written information such as signs, brochures, newspapers and magazines. They must also be able to produce simple written English.

Listening: 30 minutes (approximately)

Candidates need to be able to understand announcements and other spoken material when people speak reasonably slowly.

Speaking: up to 10 minutes

Candidates take the Speaking test with another candidate or in a group of three, and are tested on their ability to take part in different types of interaction; with the examiner, with the other candidate and by themselves.
Each of these three test components provides a unique contribution to a profile of overall communicative language ability that defines what a candidate can do at this level.

Language specifications

Candidates who are successful in Cambridge English: Key for Schools should be able to satisfy their basic communicative needs in a range of everyday situations with both native and non-native speakers of English.

Preparation

General

- The Reading and Writing part of the test takes 1 hour and 10 minutes with a total of 56 questions. Candidates have a question paper and a separate answer sheet on which they record their answers. Efforts are made to keep the language of instructions to candidates as simple as possible, and a worked example is given in Parts 1-8 of the test.
- Reading texts are authentic texts, adapted where necessary so that most of the vocabulary and grammatical structures are accessible to students at this level. However, candidates are expected to be able to make use of interpretation strategies if they encounter unfamiliar lexis or structures.
- Candidates do not need to follow a specific course before attempting Cambridge English: Key for Schools. Any general English course for beginners of approximately 200 learning hours which develops reading and writing skills alongside instruction in grammar and vocabulary will be suitable.
- In addition to coursebook reading texts, teachers are advised to give their students every opportunity to read the type of English used in everyday life, for example, short newspaper and magazine articles, advertisements, tourist brochures, instructions, recipes, etc. In dealing with this real-life material, students should be encouraged to develop reading strategies to compensate for their limited linguistic resources, such as the ability to guess unfamiliar words, and the ability to extract the main message from a text.
- A class library consisting of English language magazines and simplified readers on subjects of interest to students will be a valuable resource.
- Students should also be encouraged to take advantage of real-life occasions for writing short messages to each other and their teacher. They can, for example, write invitations, arrangements for meeting, apologies for missing a class, or notices about lost property. Here the emphasis should be on the successful communication of the intended message, though errors of structure, vocabulary, spelling and punctuation should not be ignored.
- To ensure that candidates fully understand what they will have to do in the Reading and Writing paper, it is advisable for them to become familiar in advance with the different types of test tasks. They should also make sure that they understand how to record their answers on the answer sheet, (page 21).

By part

Parts 1–5 focus particularly on reading.

PART 1

- In Part 1, candidates are tested on their ability to understand the main message of a sign, notice or other very short text. These texts are of the type usually found in schools, shops, sports centres, libraries, cinemas, etc. Wherever possible these texts are authentic and so may contain lexis which is unfamiliar to the candidates, but this should not prevent them from understanding the main message. This is a matching question, requiring candidates to match five sentences to the appropriate sign or notice.
PART 7

In Part 7, candidates are asked to complete a gapped text. Texts are short and simple and are of the type candidates at this level may be expected to write, for example, notes, emails and short letters. A text may take the form of a note plus a reply to that note, or may be a single letter. Deletions in the text focus on grammatical structure and vocabulary. Candidates are only asked to produce words which students at this level can be expected to actively use. Correct spelling of the missing words is essential in this part.

PART 8

In Part 8, candidates complete a simple information transfer task. They are asked to use the information in two short texts (email, advertisement, note, etc.) to complete a note, form, diary entry or other similar type of document. Candidates have to understand the text(s) in order to complete the task, and the focus is on both writing and reading ability. Candidates are expected to understand the vocabulary commonly associated with forms and note taking, for example, name, date, time, cost, etc. The required written production is at word and phrase level, not sentence. Correct spelling is essential in this part.

PART 9

In Part 9, candidates are given the opportunity to show that they can communicate a written message (25–35 words) of an authentic type, for example a note, email or postcard to a friend. The instructions indicate the type of message required, who it is for and what kind of information should be included. Candidates must respond to the prompts given. All three prompts must be addressed in order to complete the task fully. Alternatively, the candidates may be asked to read and respond appropriately to three elements contained within a short note, email or postcard from a friend.

In order to help teachers assess the standards required, there are several sample answers to the Writing Part 9 question on page 20, with marks and examiner comments.

Ana Johnson
Ana Johnson is a 13-year-old swimmer who lives in Melbourne in Australia. Her dream is to swim for Australia in the next Olympics.
She swims in both long and short races and she has already come first in many important competitions.

As well as spending many hours in the pool, Ana also makes time for studying and for friends. ‘I have lots of friends who swim and we’re very close. It’s much easier to have friends who are swimmers because they also have to get up early to practise like me and they understand this kind of life. But I’m not so different from other people my age. In my free time I also enjoy going to the movies and parties. There are also some good things about swimming for a club. I travel a lot for competitions and I have made friends with swimmers from other Australian cities and from other parts of the world.’

Ana is becoming well known in Australia and she believes it is important to get more young people interested in swimming. ‘I don’t mind talking to journalists and having my photograph taken. But last year I was on TV and that was much more fun.’

Assessment of Writing Part 9

• There are 5 marks for Part 9. Candidates at this level are not expected to produce faultless English, but to achieve 5 marks a candidate should write a cohesive message, which successfully communicates all three parts of the message, with only minor grammar and spelling errors. A great variety of fully acceptable answers is possible.

Mark Scheme for Part 9

<tr>
<th>Mark</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>All three parts of message clearly communicated. Only minor spelling errors or occasional grammatical errors.</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>All three parts of message communicated. Some non-impeding errors in spelling and grammar or some awkwardness of expression.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>All three parts of message attempted. Expression requires interpretation by the reader and contains impeding errors in spelling and grammar. All three parts of the message are included but the context is incorrect. OR Two parts of message are clearly communicated. Only minor spelling errors or occasional grammatical errors.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Only two parts of message communicated. Some errors in spelling and grammar. The errors in expression may require patience and interpretation by the reader and impede communication.</td>

<td>Only one part of the message communicated. Some attempt to address the task but response is very unclear.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0</td>
<td>Question unattempted, or totally incomprehensible response.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Candidates are penalised for not writing the minimum number of words (i.e. fewer than 25). They are not penalised for writing too much, though they are not advised to do so. Candidates also need to think carefully about who the target reader is for each task and try to write in an appropriate style. It is important to write clearly so that the answers are easy to read. However, it is not important if candidates write in upper or lower case, or if their writing is joined up or not.

Preparation

General

- The Listening paper is divided into five parts with a total of 25 questions. The texts are written or adapted by item writers specifically for the test and recorded in a studio to simulate real spoken language. The listening texts are recorded on CD, and each text is heard twice. There are pauses for candidates to look at the questions and to write their answers. The instructions to the candidates on the recording are the same as the instructions on the question paper. Candidates write their answers on the question paper as they listen, and they are then given 8 minutes at the end of the test to transfer these answers to an answer sheet. The complete Listening test, including time for the transfer of answers, takes about 30 minutes.
- Listening is a language skill which should be practised from the early stages of learning English.
- The teacher’s first resource is the listening material included in the coursebook. These listening tasks should be made use of regularly in order to build up the confidence which comes from listening to a variety of speakers talking about a range of topics. A major advantage of using recorded material is that teacher and students are in control of the number of times a particular listening text is played, which should be varied. Sometimes students will need several repeats before they are able to extract the information required by a particular listening task, but at other times they should try to see how much they can understand after just one hearing.
- In addition to making regular use of coursebook materials, teachers should take every opportunity to maximise students’ exposure to authentic spoken English. Even with beginner level students, English should be used as much as possible as the language of classroom management. Thus from an early stage students become used to following instructions in English and to extracting relevant information from spoken discourse.
- Other sources of authentic listening material include: films, television, videos and DVDs, songs, the internet, British Embassies and Consulates, the British Council, language schools, clubs, youth hostels, teachers of English and any other speakers of English, such as tourists, friends and family.
- In listening to real-life spoken English, students should be encouraged to develop listening strategies such as picking out important information, and deducing meaning from context by focusing on key words and ignoring unimportant or unfamiliar terms.
- Students should also become familiar with the task types in the Cambridge English: Key for Schools Listening paper, and make sure they know how to record their answers on the answer sheet (page 30).
- Candidates should tell the supervisor of the Listening test as soon as possible if they have difficulty hearing the recording. It is important to let the supervisor know this at the beginning of the recording before the Listening test begins properly.

By part

PART 1

- In Part 1, candidates are tested on their ability to identify simple factual information in five separate short conversational exchanges. The short conversations are either between friends or relatives, or between a member of the public and a shop assistant, etc. The information focused on in these dialogues is, for example, prices, numbers, times, dates, locations, directions, shapes, sizes, weather, descriptions of people and current actions.
- On the question paper, the candidates see a simple question and three multiple-choice options based on pictures. There are five questions in Part 1.

PART 2

- In Part 2, candidates are tested on their ability to identify simple factual information in a longer conversation. The conversation is an informal one between two people who know each other. The topic will be one of personal interest to the speakers, for example, daily life, free-time activities, etc.
- Candidates show their understanding of the conversation by matching two lists of items, for example, people with the food they like to eat, or days of the week with activities.

PART 3

- In Part 3, candidates are also tested on their ability to identify simple factual information. The listening text is usually an informal conversation between two people who know each other about a topic of personal interest to the speakers.
- In this part, candidates show their understanding of the conversation by answering five multiple-choice questions, each with three options.

PARTS 4 AND 5

- In Parts 4 and 5, candidates are tested on their ability to extract specific factual information from a dialogue or monologue and write it down. The dialogue or monologue is in a neutral context, for example, in shops, schools, etc. A monologue may be a recorded message. The information to be extracted is of a practical nature, for example, opening times, entrance fees, etc.
- Candidates are asked to complete a message or notes by extracting information from the listening text and writing it down. Information to be written down consists of numbers, times, dates, prices, spellings and words. In each case, candidates are required to write down one or two words or numbers. Completely accurate spelling is not required, except where a name has been spelled out in the listening text or when it is a simple high-frequency word.

You now have 8 minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.
This is the Cambridge English: Key for Schools Listening Sample Paper. There are five parts to the test. Parts One, Two, Three, Four and Five.

We will now stop for a moment before we start the test. Please ask any questions now because you must NOT speak during the test.

Now look at the instructions for Part One.

You will hear five short conversations.

You will hear each conversation twice.

There is one question for each conversation.

For each question, choose the right answer, A, B or C.

Here is an example:

Which is the girl’s horse?

Boy: Is that your horse over there, with the white face?

Girl: No. Mine is the one with two white legs. Isn’t she pretty?

Boy: Oh yes, standing next to the black one.

Girl: That’s right. Would you like to ride her?

The answer is A.

Now we are ready to start.

Look at question one.

1 How many children went on the school trip?

Man: Did you enjoy your school trip, James? Did everyone in your class go?

James: No, twelve people stayed behind, so there were eighteen of us. We had a great time.

Man: Where did you all sleep?

James: We had small rooms with six beds in each one. It was lots of fun.

Now listen again.

2 Which campsite did Josh stay at last year?

Woman: Where did you go on holiday last year Josh? Did you go to that campsite by the sea again?

Josh: We couldn’t because it was full. But we found an even nicer one, in a forest.

Woman: Are you going there again this year?

Josh: My dad wants to try one in the mountains this year.

Now listen again.

3 How much is the skirt?

Sophie: Mum, will you buy me this skirt?

Mother: How much is it, Sophie? I don’t want to spend more than twenty pounds.

Sophie: Well, this ticket says twenty-five pounds but I think everything in this part of the shop is in the sale.

Mother: Oh yes, look, it’s fifteen pounds. OK then, but that’s the last thing I’m buying today.

Now listen again.

4 What’s the weather like now?

Boy: Pete, it’s stopped raining. Shall we go out for a bike ride?

Pete: I’m watching TV now. Anyway, it’s still cloudy. I think it’s going to rain again.

Boy: Oh all right. Shall we go tomorrow if it’s sunny?

Pete: Yes, OK.

Now listen again.

5 What will the girl cook?

Girl: Mum, can I do some cooking?

Mother: I suppose so. What do you want to make, a cake?

Girl: No one liked the one I made last week. Can I make some soup this time?

Mother: OK. We can have it for lunch. I’m cooking roast chicken for dinner tonight.

Now listen again.

This is the end of Part One.
Now look at Part Two.

Listen to Nick talking to a friend about his birthday presents.

What present did each person give him?

For questions 6–10, write a letter A–H next to each person. You will hear the conversation twice.

Girl: Hi Nick. What’s that you’re reading?
Nick: It’s a book my cousin got me for my birthday. It’s really interesting.
Girl: Oh yes, I forgot it was your birthday. What did you get from your mum?
Nick: Well, I asked for a new bike, but she bought me this phone instead. I can listen to music on it and take pictures!
Girl: Oh! And what did your brother get you? A computer game?
Nick: He bought me this jacket. Do you like it?
Girl: It’s great. Did your aunt buy you anything?
Nick: Well, she usually gives me money. But this year she got me two tickets to see a film.
Girl: And what about your uncle? He knows a lot about music doesn’t he?
Nick: Yes, he usually buys me a CD. But this time he gave me twenty pounds and told me to choose something myself.
Girl: And did your grandmother give you anything?
Nick: Well, I often get clothes from her, but this year she gave me a computer game. My brother helped her choose it!

Now listen again.

This is the end of Part Two.

Now look at Part Three.

Listen to Susie talking to her friend Matt about going to the cinema.

For each question, choose the right answer, A, B or C.

Look at questions 11–15 now. You have twenty seconds.

Now listen to the conversation.

Susie: Hi Matt. Would you like to come to the cinema with me and Jane on Saturday? We asked Sam and Pete too but they’re both busy.
Matt: What are you going to see Susie?
Susie: Field of Green. It’s got Johnny Delaicey in it.
Matt: Oh, yes, I know. He was in Sunny Day and Heart of Gold. Is it on at the cinema in the shopping centre?
Susie: That one’s closed. We’re going to the one opposite the park. It’s not on at the one by the market.
Matt: And how are you getting there?
Susie: My mum can’t drive us, so we’re going to walk from my house. We can get the bus back afterwards.
Matt: OK. What time shall I be at your house then?
Susie: Well, the film starts at four-fifteen, so come at a quarter to four. It takes about twenty minutes to get there.
Matt: Fine. And how much money should I bring? Tickets are five pounds fifty aren’t they?
Susie: These are more. They’re six pounds twenty for this film. I’m taking eight pounds so I can get a drink as well.
Matt: Good idea. See you later!

Now listen again.

This is the end of Part Three.

Now look at Part Four.

You will hear a girl, Milly, asking a friend about guitar lessons.

Listen and complete each question.

You will hear the conversation twice.

Milly: Hello Dan, it’s Milly here.
Dan: Hi.
Milly: I’m phoning to ask about your guitar lessons. My parents are thinking about buying me an electric guitar.
Dan: Oh, great. Well, the teacher I go to gives lessons every Saturday morning.
Milly: What’s the teacher’s name?
Dan: She’s called Alison Gayle. She’s very good.
Milly: How do you spell her surname?
Dan: It’s G A Y L E.
Milly: And how much is a lesson? My parents don’t want to pay more than thirty pounds.
Dan: It’s twenty-six pounds fifty for an hour. But you can have a shorter lesson if you like. I pay seventeen pounds fifty for forty minutes.
Milly: That sounds good. And where do you have the lessons? At her house?
Dan: That’s right. She lives at 34 Purley Lane. It’s close to the city centre. You’ll find it easily.
Milly: Have you got her phone number?
Dan: Yes, it’s 01253 664 783.
Milly: Thanks Dan. I’ll call her tonight.
Dan: OK. Make sure you call between six o’clock and nine o’clock. She doesn’t like it if people call later than that.
Milly: All right. Thanks for your help Dan.

Now listen again.

This is the end of Part Four.
Now look at Part Five.

You will hear a man on the radio talking about a new TV quiz show.

Listen and complete each question.

You will hear the information twice.

Man: Now, listen carefully! I want to tell you about a new TV quiz show for children. It’s called Answer That, and it will be on channel five at four o’clock every Thursday. It will be just like the popular adult quiz show on the same channel on Monday afternoons. I’m sure you’ve all seen that!

Every week there will be forty-eight children on the programme. They will be in eight teams, and each team will have six children.

The questions will be easy at the beginning of the quiz and then they will get more difficult. They will all be about films, music and TV. At the end there will be only one team left – the winners.

There will be some great prizes. This week the winners will all get a new camera. Everyone loves taking photos. Next week the first prize is a laptop. If you would like to be on Answer That, then call 05735 789 655. Just give your name, age and school address, and maybe you will be on TV soon!

Now listen again.

This is the end of Part Five.

You now have eight minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

You have one more minute.

This is the end of the test.

Candidate answer sheet
Paper 3
Speaking

General description

PAPER FORMAT
The paper contains two parts.

TIMING
8-10 minutes per pair of candidates.

NO. OF PARTS
2

INTERACTION PATTERN
The standard format is two candidates and two examiners. One examiner acts as interlocutor and manages the interaction by asking questions and setting up the tasks. The other acts as assessor and does not join in the conversation.

TASK TYPES
Short exchanges with the examiner and an interactive task involving both candidates.

MARKS
Candidates are assessed on their performance throughout the test. Candidates are not expected to produce completely accurate or fluent language, but they are expected to interact appropriately and intelligibly. The emphasis in assessment is on the ability to communicate clearly.

Structure and tasks

PART 1

TASK
Each candidate interacts with the interlocutor.

TYPE AND FORMAT
The interlocutor asks the candidates questions. The interlocutor follows an interlocutor frame to guide the conversation, ensure standardisation and control the level of input.

FOCUS
Language normally associated with meeting people for the first time, giving information of a factual personal kind. Biodata-type questions to respond to.

TIMING
5-6 minutes

PART 2

TASK
Candidates interact with each other.

TYPE AND FORMAT
The interlocutor sets up the activity using a standardised rubric. Candidates ask and answer questions using prompt material.

FOCUS
Factual information of a non-personal kind related to daily life.

TIMING
3-4 minutes
Preparation

General

• The Speaking test has two parts and lasts 8 to 10 minutes, involving two examiners and a pair of candidates. One examiner is an interlocutor while the other, who takes no part in the interaction, is an assessor. The Speaking component contributes 25% of the marks for the whole test.

• It is important that the speaking skill is developed alongside the other language skills. This may best be done by making English the language of classroom management, and by encouraging students to communicate with each other and with the teacher in English.

• Candidates should be able to respond appropriately to questions asking for simple information about themselves. They should, for example, be able to give their name (including spelling it), country of origin, subject of study; give information about their family, home town, school, free-time activities and talk simply about their likes and dislikes.

• Simple role plays in which students are required to ask and answer questions will provide useful practice. Such role plays should focus on everyday language and situations and involve questions about daily activities and familiar experiences, or feature exchanging information about such things as charges and opening times of, for example, a local sports centre.

• Practising for the Cambridge English: Key for Schools Speaking component will help students prepare for possible real-life situations. This will encourage students to use spoken language, increase their confidence in their language ability and help them develop a positive attitude towards the language learning process.

By part

PART 1

• This takes 5 to 6 minutes. In this part, each candidate interacts with the interlocutor, using the language normally associated with meeting people for the first time, giving factual information of a personal kind, for example, name, place of origin, study, family etc. Candidates are also expected to be able to talk about their daily life, interests, likes, etc.

PART 2

• This takes 3 to 4 minutes. In this part, the two candidates interact with each other. This involves asking and answering questions about factual information of a non-personal kind. Prompt cards are used to stimulate questions and answers which will be related to daily life, leisure activities and social life (including references to places, times, services, where to go, how to get there, what to eat, etc.).
Part 2 3 – 4 minutes (Prompt card activity)

Prompt cards are used to stimulate questions and answers of a non-personal kind. The interlocutor reads out instructions and gives a question card to one candidate and an answer card to the other. After the candidates have asked and answered the questions, they change roles, as in the example below.

Example

The interlocutor reads out these instructions and gives a question card to Candidate B and an answer card to Candidate A.

Candidate A, there is some information about a skateboarding competition. Candidate B, you don’t know anything about the skateboarding competition, so ask A some questions about it. Now B, ask A your questions about the skateboarding competition and A, you answer them.

Candidate A – your answers

Candidate B – your questions

Skateboarding Competition
• where?
• for children?
• date?
• website?
• what / win?

There is a variety of acceptable questions which may be produced using this material. For example:

Where is the competition?
Is the competition for children?
What date is it?
Is there a website address?
What can you win?

The examiner will stop the interaction after 4 or 6 questions have been asked and answered. A different set of prompt cards is then given out, so that Candidate A has the opportunity to ask questions and Candidate B to answer them. In this example, the questions are about a theatre school.

Candidate B, here is some information about a theatre school. Candidate A, you don’t know anything about the theatre school, so ask B some questions about it. Now B, ask A your questions about the theatre school and B, you answer them.

Assessment of Speaking

Examiners and marking
The quality assurance of Speaking Examiners (SEs) is managed by Team Leaders (TLs). TLs ensure all examiners successfully complete examiner training and regular certification of procedure and assessment before they examine. TLs are in turn responsible to a Professional Support Leader (PSL) who is the professional representative of Cambridge ESOL for the Speaking tests in a given country or region.

Annual examiner certification involves attendance at a face-to-face meeting to focus on and discuss assessment and procedure, followed by the marking of sample Speaking tests in an online environment. Examiners must complete standardisation of assessment for all relevant levels each year and are regularly monitored during live testing sessions.

Assessment scales
Throughout the test candidates are assessed on their own individual performance and not in relation to each other. They are awarded marks by two examiners: the assessor and the interlocutor. The assessor awards marks by applying performance descriptors from the analytical assessment scales for the following criteria:

- Grammar and Vocabulary
- Pronunciation
- Interactive Communication

The interlocutor awards a mark for global achievement using the global achievement scale.

Assessment for Cambridge English: Key for Schools is based on performance across all parts of the test, and is achieved by applying the relevant descriptors in the assessment scales. The assessment scales for Cambridge English: Key for Schools (shown on page 35) are extracted from the overall Speaking scales on page 36.

4. PRONUNCIATION

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Intelligible</th>
<th>Intelligible: a contribution which can generally be understood by a non-EFL/ESOL specialist, even if the speaker has a strong or unfamiliar accent.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Phonological features include the pronunciation of individual sounds, word and sentence stress and intonation.

Individual sounds are:
- Pronounced vowels, e.g., the /æ/ in cat or the /e/ in bed
- Diphthongs, when two vowels are rolled together to produce one sound, e.g., the /əʊ/ in host or the /eɪ/ in hate
- Consonants, e.g., the /k/ in cut or the /ʃ/ in fish.

Stress: the emphasis laid on a syllable or word. Words of two or more syllables have one syllable which stands out from the rest because it is pronounced more loudly and clearly, and is longer than the others, e.g., important. Word stress can also distinguish between words, e.g., protest vs PROtest. In sentences, stress can be used to indicate important meaning, e.g., WHY is that one important? versus Why is THAT one important?

Intonation: the way the voice rises and falls, e.g., to convey the speaker’s mood, to support meaning or to indicate new information.

5. INTERACTIVE COMMUNICATION

Development of the interaction: actively developing the conversation, e.g., by saying more than the minimum in response to the written or visual stimulus, or to something the other candidate/interlocutor has said, or by proactively involving the other candidate with a suggestion or question about further developing the topic (e.g., What about bringing a camera for the holiday? or Why’s that?).

Initiating: starting a new turn by introducing a new idea or a new development of the current topic.

Responding: replying or reacting to what the other candidate or the interlocutor has said.

Prompting and Supporting
